Jamie Lee, RDN•www.HealthFullNutrition.com

511 SE 11th Ave #202 Portland, OR

Email: jamielerd@gmail.com

Phone: (503) 451-0365

Jamie Lee specializes in intuitive eating and the low FODMAP diet, providing individual counseling sessions to offer a safe, supportive environment to heal from diet culture, disordered eating and digestive health ailments. The process promotes self-care, not punishment, to cultivate an approach that honors her patients' needs. Sessions are collaborative, and encourage listening to and trusting hunger and satiety signals, saying goodbye to unnecessary restrictions and promoting pleasurable, mindful meals. Medical nutrition therapy is incorporated, as appropriate, to support blood sugar control, heart health, sports nutrition, polycystic ovarian syndrome (PCOS), and digestion, including irritable bowel syndrome and SIBO.
